

Experience the Alps and true Alpine charm

Don't Miss Alpbach with its unique timber buildings, known as Austria's prettiest village.

Go off-the-beaten-track in a picture-book setting. Alpbachtal is perfect for anyone looking for crowd-free Alpine experiences and great value for money.

Need to Know

- In the summer, explore 900 km of marked hiking and walking trails for every ability and partake in adventurous outdoor activities for families and groups.
- In the winter, enjoy relaxed skiing for every level on 109 km of pistes and a variety of off-piste activities.
- The Alpbachtal Seenland Card (available free of charge at your accommodation) opens the door to numerous benefits such as free bus services, entry to bathing lakes and mountain lifts in the summer and guided snow-shoe or torchlit walks in winter.

services, entry to bathing lakes and mountain lifts in the summer and guided snow-shoe or torchlit walks in winter.

A Winter Day in Alpbachtal

Morning

Spend the morning skiing and enjoy the stunning views from the Schatzberg mountain, right next to the top station of the Alpbachtal gondola. For lunch, stop off at the Böglalm Hut, the most traditional hut in the valley.

Afternoon

Choose from 19 panoramic winter walking routes, 14 cross-country trails and 4 snow-shoe hiking routes. Soak up the peaceful snowy scenery and walk past rustic wooden mountain huts.

Evening

Thanks to the floodlights, you can go tobogganing by night in Reith/Alpbachtal two nights a week.

A Summer Day in Alpbachtal

Morning

Take the gondola or try a one-hour hike up the Wiedersbergerhorn mountain and soak up spectacular views over some of Austria's highest peaks. Two huts offering refreshments and a fun mountain-top playground for kids await. The "Lauser Sauser" coaster offers a fun way to whizz back down the mountain – reaching speeds of up to 42 kmph.

Afternoon

For a more challenging walk, follow the trail from the Wiedersbergerhorn up to the Standkopf (2,239m) for the most spectacular views.

Evening

Enjoy a delicious dinner in the cosy Gasthof Rossmoss in Alpbach.

Best Time to Travel

Summer:

May to October

Winter:

December to March

Getting There & Around

Airports:

Innsbruck (50km)

Munich (150km)

Salzburg (150km)

Railway:

Jenbach (10km) for international trains, or Brixlegg for local trains

Germany

Italy